

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth...And God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness...By the word of the Lord were the heavens made...for he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast...Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

Confessions of a Creationist

I Believe

- I. All scripture is given by inspiration of God and thus the authority of scripture extends equally to all books within the canon of scripture including the historical account of creation and early earth history as recorded in the first eleven chapters of the book of Genesis.
- II. In the grammatical-historical interpretation of the Genesis record concerning the details of the creation, the fall of Adam, the global flood of Noah's day, and the scattering of the race at the Tower of Babel.
- III. The material universe including the earth and everything in it came into existence by the direct creative acts of God through the power of His word.
- IV. God created the universe Ex Nihilo. The material universe is not eternal.
- V. The days of creation to be literal days with a morning and evening. The seventh day is a part of the creation week and is to be understood as a normal day as well.
- VI. Dinosaurs originated on day six of the creation week as did all the other beasts of the field.
- VII. Adam was the first man in history. He is the head of the one human race. No human beings of any sort existed on planet earth prior to Adam.
- VIII. Death came into the world after Adam's sin. There was no death in the world prior to the fall of man in the Garden of Eden.
- IX. The history of mankind in scripture limits the age of the earth to less than 10,000 years.
- X. Jesus Christ our Lord confirms the doctrine of special creation recorded in the book of Genesis. To compromise the clear teaching of scripture is to attack the integrity of Jesus Christ himself.
